RADEON IMAGE SHARPENING

Improved Image Quality with Virtually No Performance Hit

Radeon Image Sharpening (RIS) is a contrast-adaptive sharpening algorithm designed to intelligently enhance details to deliver crisp-looking visuals with minimal performance impact.

RADEON ANTI-LAG

shrink input lag by almost a full frame¹ helping to restore the responsiveness to your game

The new Radeon Anti-Lag feature in Radeon™ Software is designed to help reduce input lag in GPU-limited cases. Radeon Anti-Lag controls the pace of the CPU work to make sure it doesn't get too far ahead of the GPU, reducing the amount of CPU work queued up. As a result, Radeon Anti-Lag can shrink input lag by almost a full frame helping to restore the responsiveness to your game.

Click-to-Response Times (MS)

Lower is better

Up to 31% Reduction in Lag*

* The response time might vary by different graphics.
